BLIZZARD SWEEPS MIDDLE WEST*$250,000 Fire in Omaha During Storm

Omaha, Neb.—The worst blizzard since 1888 has swept Nebraska and Western Iowa. The temperature dropped to nine below zero at Omaha. It is feared that there was loss of life in the state. Highways are blocked with snow drifts, towns snowbound, and many trains stalled in snow-filled cuts.

Train service throughout the state was badly crippled. The Rocky Mountain Limited is reported snowbound near Jansen, Neb.

The first storm casualty was reported from Osceola, Neb., near where T. O. Moore of Chicago was found in a critical condition, with hands and feet frozen.

At Lincoln, Neb., Bula M. Jarboe, 8-year-old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. Edwin Jarboe, was burned to death when her clothing caught fire from an electric heater during the storm.

At the height of the storm here, fire broke out in the business section and swept through half a block, causing a loss estimated in excess of $250,000. The entire business district of Omaha was endangered.

TRAIN HOLDUP FRUSTRATED

Attempt to Rob Express Car on Northern Pacific Near Seattle

Tacoma, Wash. — Three Seattle bandits, two of whom are wounded, were brought to the county jail following their capture between Buckley and Enumclaw. The trio attempted to rob the express car on Northern Pacific train No. 526 at South Prairie. The car carried $15,000.

Floyd Jorgenson, 20, and Jerry Penning, 27, were captured by a posse from Buckley, one and one-half miles west of Enumclaw, while Paul Ripley, 37, was taken into custody in the woods near White River, King County.

UNIQUE CELEBRATION PLAN

Pony Express Event Termed Gigantic Boost for West

The pony express race, originally planned as a memorial to Mark Twain, has developed into a great celebration of pioneer days in general, including a Western pageant of the evolution of transportation. The first scheme was to hold a 2000-mile pony express following the old trail from St. Joseph, Mo., to California, as a revival of the pioneer spirit.

This plan will probably be expanded into a great celebration, in which a score of cities in various Western States will have a share and of which San Francisco will be the goal.

LOS ANGELES BOY ATTACKED

Skull Is Fractured by Blow With Rock

Los Angeles.—Perhaps the victim of a murderous attack by a maniac, Carl Quinby, 11 years of age, was found today unconscious and probably dying in an abandoned reservoir in Lincoln park. His skull was fractured. A cobblestone, which could have served for a weapon, was found lying near by. There was the mark of a blow on the right side of his head.

NATION DOES HONOR TO HIS MAJESTY
THE PRUNE

This is National Prune Week and we of this locality are naturally vitally interested in all the movements which advance the sales of the product and arouse an intelligent interest in the many ways of using this valuable fruit.

At the present time attention is more or less settled upon the controversy existing in the Prune and Apricot Growers Association. Whatever the grounds for complaint and dissension there is no question as to the good which the growers have derived from stabilizing the market and the higher prices received for the two great crops.

Readjustments in administration are undoubtedly necessary, as is true in almost any rapidly growing organization, but the worth of co-operative marketing cannot be disputed. President Harding in addressing the National Council of Farmers Co-operative Marketing Associations held in Washington, D. C., last December spoke in high terms of the value of co-operative marketing. After speaking of government aid he remarked:

"In the long run Government aid cannot be made effective unless the farmers shall be organized and alive to their own responsibility to establish and use practical instruments for the distribution of credits and the assurance of the most economical marketing methods. This association stands precisely for the best, most intelligent effort to establish such methods, and to teach the farmer and his friends to utilize them."

DEATH OF MRS. BROWN

Mrs. Rosa Belle Brown, wife of H. A. Brown of the Winchester Road, passed away Tuesday the funeral services were held from the family home Thursday afternoon, interment being at Oak Hill Cemetery, San Jose.

Mrs. Brown was but just past middle age, being only a month past 51 years, but she had been in very poor health for several years, having suffered a stroke of paralysis, from which she but partially recovered.

She leaves two children, a son, Leland, living on a ranch near his parents, and a daughter, Luella, a student in the Grammar school.
The bereaved husband and children have every sympathy in their sorrow.

GROWERS, ATTENTION!

A special committee of the Santa Clara County Prune and Apricot Growers Association has arranged for two public meetings to be held—one at the Friendly Inn, Morgan Hill, at 8 o'clock, Friday evening, March 23rd; another in the Assembly Hall of the Cupertino Union Schill at 8:00 o'clock on the evening of Saturday, March 24th, at which matters pertaining to the welfare of the Association will be discussed.

In the short space of time intervening between now and the special meeting of the Voting Board it is impossible to arrange a more extended schedule. We are trusting that growers from all portions of District 8 will avail themselves of the opportunity of attending one of these meetings.
The halls provided will be ample for your accommodation. Certainly we have never been called upon as growers to meet a more serious crisis in the life of our Association, and you should know the facts and make your decision accordingly.

PASSION PLAY TO BE GIVEN BY U. OF S. C.

One of the most pretentious productions ever attempted in amateur theatricals will be staged in the University of Santa Clara auditorium April 27, 28 and 29 when the Associated Students of the University will enact Clay M.
Greene's splendid Biblical drama,
"The Passion Play of Santa Clara." The play was written by Mr. Greene, who is an alumnus of the institution, as a work of love and affection for his Alma Mater. It was originally produced in 1901 and its present revival will mark the fourth presentation of the Old Mission Institution.

The entire production is under the personal supervision and direction of Martin V. Merle, distinguished young author and playwright. Anton Lang, celebrated "Christus" of the world famed Passion Play at Oberam-gau, Bavaria, in the great productions of 1900, 1910 and 1922 has sent his personal felicitations and wishes of success to Mr.
Merle.

The message which came in the form of a personal autograph was translated as follows: "To Mr. Martin V. Merle—I wish you all success in the Passion Play and God's blessing. Anton Lang, Christus, 1922." Not only did Herr Lang send his personal message but has requested the privilege of reading the text of Greene's sacred masterpiece.

It is no exaggeration to state that in point of dignity, grandeur and pictorial accuracy no production yet seen in California has outvalued the efforts now being made at Santa Clara in preparation for the public production of the Passion Play.

FIREMEN'S DANCE WAS BIG SUCCESS

The St. Patrick's dance, the Fireman's Annual event, which this year was held in the California Canneries, was a decidedly pleasant occasion.

A generous group of lovers of Terpsichore and supporters of the Fire Department assembled for the occasion, and enjoyed a social good time.

As announced by Mr. Jacobs, the room had been made into a very comfortable hall and considering the hard usage to which the floor is put during the work season, it had been put into very good condition. The platform erected for the musicians was decorated with green and white crepe paper and a kitchen had been partitioned off by using khaki canvass.

"Hot dog" sandwiches were served and found a ready market.

The prize waltz was won by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bohnett, for which they received a generous box of candy.

Financial returns of the event are not available as yet but will appear later.

The California Canneries is deserving of special commendation for their work in preparing a place and making it so comfortable.

The date for the Annual Roll Call of the Methodist church has been set for April 5.

BLOSSOM FESTIVAL TO BE HELD AT SARATOGA
MARCH 24-25

Campbell people should make special efforts on Saturday and Sunday to attend the Saratoga Blossom Festival, an annual event which is not only advertising the Foothill town but is also of great benefit to the entire Santa Clara Valley.

That the program for the present year is a very attractive one will be generally felt. Hon. James D. Phelan who is to be the speaker Saturday March 24, is a man of international reputation, a practical speaker, a student who has traveled the world over, an author and a bookman in the wider sense. He has a home in the hills between Saratoga and Los Gatos and knows the valley and its people as few persons do. That he will have something to say to them that they will want to hear is certain.

Mrs. Carrie Jacobs Bond who is to be the guest of honor Sunday, March 25, is famous as the composer of "A Perfect Day" and other songs and is now devoting much time to the encouragement of community music. It has been announced already that she will play the accompaniment for a new song she has written which is called "The Forget-Me-Not," and it is quite probable that the spirit may move her to make a short address. Her presence on the platform and her participation in the program are sufficient in themselves to make the Sunday program notable.

Exceptional Quartet.
Something should be said also of the male quartet which is to appear on Sunday. Hugh J. Williams is tenor soloist of Grace Cathedral and Temple Emanuel, San Francisco. Harrison Giles is tenor soloist of Trinity church, San Francisco and assisting soloist of St. Luke's church special choir. Harold Pracht is baritone soloist at Trinity church and prominent in Olympic club musical events. Henry L. Perry is bass soloist of St. Luke's church and Temple Emanuel, San Francisco, associate chorus master of the Bohemian club, director of the Choral Art Society of San Francisco and the San Rafael Choral Society.

Here it is fitting that acknowledgments should be made to Mr. Alexander Stewart through whose good offices the quartet has been secured and Mrs. Bond's interest in the festival was aroused. Mr. Stewart is acting both as organizer and conductor.
He became interested in community work as we understand the term now through his connection with War Camp Community Service. At present he represents Community Service, Inc., as music organizer for the Pacific Coast. He has organized music weeks and other music work in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Sacramento, Long Beach, Modesto, Visalia and other cities. To speak more specifically of his work as a musician, he was for ten years choir director in the First Congregational church, Oakland, where he introduced the idea of oratorio services, was director of the Alameda County Chorus of three hundred voices which gave performances of "The Messiah" at the Panama Pacific Exposition, a member of the music faculty at Mills College, and director of the choral section of the California Woman's club of San Francisco.

Co-operation Shown.

In the matter of music this year adds to the indebtedness of the festival to the College of the Pacific. The help of that institution for several seasons has been invaluable. It has contributed large and splendidly drilled choruses under Deans Warren D.
Allen, Howard H. Hanson and Charles M. Dennis. This year Professor Dennis will conduct special numbers from Gounod's "Redemption." The college orchestra under Miles A. Dresskell will be heard again with the college chorus on Saturday. On Sunday instrumental music will be furnished by the San Jose high school orchestra of more than 50 members under the direction of George T. Matthews. Both days there will be contributions to the chorus from the towns of the valley, and Mountain View will send an organization of its own Sunday, the Mountain View Choral club whose director is Neil Darrab. There will be additions also from the State Teachers' college, San Jose, whose musical director is Miss Ida Fisher.

WOMAN'S CLUB GIVES ENJOYABLE FUNCTION

Parties and club affairs held about the 17th of March very often take their motif and color ing from that anniversary, which was true of the social afternoon of the Country Woman's Club Monday, at the home of Mrs.
James Turner.

The spacious rooms were beautiful with sprays of the double flowering peach, its deep pink showing advantageously in large jars of blue and gold.

The committee in charge of the arrangements included Mrs.
Emily Gard, Mrs. Jessie Shelley and Mrs. Maud Hyde, assisted by the hostess and the president, Mrs. E. R. Kennedy.

Mrs. Hyde announced the program numbers which were written in rhyme. Mrs. Louis Shelley gave a short sketch of the life of St. Patrick and his wonderful work in Christianizing Ireland.
It was his use of the shamrock to show that primitive people the idea of the Trinity, that has made it emblematic of Ireland and St.
Patrick's Day. Irish novels and their authors was the subject of an interesting talk by Mrs. Leigh Saunders who mentioned several poet writers and one or two poets.

An Irish jig in fancy Irish costume, by Frances Duncan, was thoroughly enjoyed, and was followed by an equally enjoyable "Faerie Tales" read by Mrs.
Lillie Shaw.

Miss Patrice Smith, who is quite remarkable as a pianist for a girl still in high school, gave a delightful rendition of Greig's "To Spring" and the "Nocturn in F" by Chopin as an encore.
She also played for the dance.

The inimitable Mr. Dooley, creature of the pen of Phinley Peter Dunne, would be quite at home in an Irish gathering, so his discourse on "Books" was read by Mrs. H. C. Smith.

Mrs. Edith Wieleman, of San Jose, sang one of the rollicking Irish songs of former days, playing her own accompaniment, and during the serving of refreshments played a variety of piano selections.

Delicious brick ice cream in delicate shading from pale peach to light green was served with angel food and Irish potatoes, which were really "sweet potatoes."

The appointments were in keeping with the day and while the dainties were being served the members related Irish jokes and conundrums which created much mirth.

Prior to wishing their hostess adieu, there was a general singing of a number of the well-known and loved Irish songs.

LESSON OF THE EASTER HOPE

New Vigor and Life and Cheerfulness Should Be Parts of the Festal Season.

Easter's new hope arises from a grave! The exuberant promises of spring always do come from previous burials.

But spring always is the season of hope and promise, of a rising in greater richness and beauty than was the sowing. Our disappointments, our losses, our hardships, were sown, buried. There let them lie! Let Hope arise, let the dead past give rise to a brighter present and future. Help on the promises of the verdant spring with new vigor, new life, new cheerfulness.

We can do much by cheery speech, by cheerful faces, by happiness in work, by trust in the future, to bring on the good times we are always looking forward to.

Keep smiling, keep keen and fresh, keep busy, forget the dead past, trust the future, that is the lesson of spring, and of the Easter hope!

NO "CRIPPLING"

ONLY PROPAGANDA

Sacramento—The use of printed forms instead of typewritten permits was adopted, according to announcement in Sacramento by the Commissioner of Corporations.

These forms will decrease the daily expenditures of this department to a remarkable degree, officials state, and will increase the rapidity with which permits are issued.

"Propaganda to the effect that the present budget contemplates the elimination and crippling of the State Corporation Department is unfounded," stated Commissioner of Corporations, Edwin H. Daugherty.

"The present budget provides for a substantial decrease in the expenditures of this department, but it does not contemplate any drastic or radical changes."

"During the calendar year of 1921 the percentage of expenditures, compared with the percentage of receipts, was approximately 65 per cent. During the calendar year of 1922 this percentage was decreased to 43 per cent, despite the heavy increase in the personnel of the staff and the office space."

Changes contemplated under the present budget do not provide for the elimination of branches in Los Angeles and San Francisco, as the anti-administration propagandists have stated in many cases. The saving that will be effected is through the adoption of modern business methods which have been under tests by department officials for eight months and more.

Word Contest Awards

Winners of the contest to see what Grammar School pupils could find the most words made up of the letters in the name "Mercantile," are as follows:

First prize, $25, Harriet Barnes, Cambrian School.

Second prize, $15, Elsie Merrill, Campbell School.

Third prize, $10, Cecil Keesling, Campbell School.

Fourth prize, $5, Beryl Peterson, Campbell School.

Winners of the ten consolation prizes of $1 each, are: Mary Maxon, Victor Fink, Kathryn Fink, Harold Mumma, Helen Stray, Merle Markin, Myron Phinney, Edna Soutar, Donald Soutar, Byron Lanphear.

When the contest period had closed and the examination of the lists had begun it became apparent that the contestants had differed widely in their understanding of the rules. Some pupils had restricted their lists principally to words in good usage; others had drawn largely on words that are obsolete. After a conference of the judges and contest officials it was decided that the greatest degree of fairness would be obtained by ruling out the obsolete words, the dictionary definition of such words being that they have "ceased to be used in living speech."

Only three capital prizes were announced at the beginning of the contest, but at the last the bank decided to award a fourth capital prize and so make one more pupil happy. The work of checking the 106 submitted lists progressed at the rate of only two or three a day, and at the last took the judges and bank clerks deep into the night hours, but the bank feels well rewarded for all this labor by the interest aroused among the children.

Use Eggs---Cooperate Put Down Eggs In Water Glass

Use more eggs because the present low price makes them an economy, and because increased consumption tends to keep the market from going so low as to discourage the producer. The last part means co-operation, both for the poultry-farmer's good and for ours—we'll need eggs in the future.

Give attention, therefore, to the many egg dishes delectable. Consider the appetizing qualities of egg-on-toast. Rejoice in the staying qualities of bacon and eggs, of the familiar "ham and." Yield to the seductive charms of custards, of cakes with eggs in 'em, of pies that call for eggs. Light into the omelettes.

ORDER TWO DOZEN FRESH EGGS TODAY

Make plans, too, for putting down eggs in water glass for use during the season of scarcity. By informing us of your needs well in advance you can get eggs of guaranteed freshness delivered direct from the poultry yard. A can of Economy Water Glass, 25c, will preserve 15 dozen.

DOES CAMPBELL KNOW THIS IS PRUNE WEEK?

Echoes of Canned Foods Week: JHN Small Whole String Beans, 30c, have proved a revelation of how good canned string beans can really be.
Patricia Vegetable Salad, 30c, is being called for again and again.
Cluff Golden Bantam Corn, 25c, has brought only one complaint. One customer pronounced it too sweet. It is surprisingly sweet, but that sweetness is a delicious natural flavor.
Ainsley's Fruit Salad aroused so much interest that we have stocked two sizes: medium, at 30c; large, at 50c.
Other canned articles that are selling well: Silver Leaf Corn, 2 for 25c; Silver Star Peas, 2 for 25c; Telephone Peas, 15c; Maryland Chief String Beans, 2 for 25c; California State Asparagus, 20c; Eagle Brand Asparagus, 30c.

SMUDGERS OBSCURE
SKY OF THE VALLEY

Los Gatos people last week, were interested in knowing the cause of the heavy pall of smoke hanging over San Jose for two mornings. It was the result of the large amount of smudging being done by fruit growers of the valley, who are taking no chances on losing even a small portion of the bountiful crop of prunes and apricots promised this season and are therefore starting smudging operations early. While the temperature dropped to thirty-four degrees Friday morning, no frost damage was done to the orchards and blossoms, due to the smudging. Secretary H. C. Dunlap of the California Prune and Apricot Growers' Association stated that while reports of small frost damage have reached the association from other sections, none has been reported by the field men from the Santa Clara valley.

CHILDREN FROZEN TO DEATH

Four Persons Lose Lives in Colorado Blizzard

Denver, Colo.—Four persons were frozen to death—in a blizzard which swept through Colorado from the north, leaving a blanket of snow ranging from eighteen inches to several feet in places, and sub-normal temperatures in its wake. The brunt of the storm was felt in the region south of Denver in the vicinity of Colorado Springs and Pueblo.

The three children of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Evans, of Baxter, Col., five miles east of Pueblo, were found frozen to death by searching parties. The children, Violet, 10, Margaret, 9, and Howard, 4, left their homes to get the family mail at a box about a half mile from their home. A severe dust storm which preceded the snowstorm drove them into the shelter of a small shanty about a quarter of a mile from their home and prevented their venturing out.

The fourth fatality was that of Thomas Reed, 75, proprietor of a store at Kutch, Col. His body was found seventeen miles south of his home. He had driven to Rush, Col., in a motor truck, and lost his life after he had abandoned the truck.
